Mission

Fellows at the Center for Leadership learn to develop their capacity for leadership and delve into thought-provoking questions about leadership, teamwork, and followership. Throughout the Winter Quarter, Fellows work collaboratively with program faculty and staff in an environment that fosters deep learning through inquiry and real-world problem solving.

Components

1. General Sessions
   • Include the entire 2022 Fellowship cohort
   • Take place on the Evanston campus
   • Dinner is provided

2. Team Meetings
   • Include 4-5 peers from across the university
   • Meeting locations are determined by the Team itself
   • Discussions are facilitated by a Team Leader

Time Commitment: 3 Hours per week
This estimate includes both the length of time of the weekly session (1.5 hours) and the time necessary to complete all preparatory readings and work (1.5 hours).

Upon completion of the program, all Fellows are awarded an $1,000 stipend.

Application Details

• Applicants must have previously been coached or are currently being coached by means of the Center for Leadership’s Leadership Coaching Program.
• Applicants must be full-time TGS students not beyond their 5th year, J.D. candidates, MD candidates or full-time post-docs.
• The deadline to apply is Friday, November 12th. The application asks basic questions about your profile and several short answer questions and requests a resume or CV. Apply here.
• Applicants that make it to the final round of the process will be asked to participate in an interview. There will be virtual and in-person time slots available and all interviews will take place December 1st – December 8th.
• Sign up for an in-person or virtual Info Session to learn more or contact lead@northwestern.edu with any specific questions.
Upon acceptance into the program, Fellows will be expected to commit to the dates outlined below. All sessions will occur on Wednesday from 5 – 6:30 PM.
